In Neither Sun nor Death, Sloterdijk answers questions posed by German writer Hans-Jürgen Heinrichs, commenting on such issues as technological mutation, development media, communication technologies, and his own intellectual itinerary. Iconoclastic and provocative, alternately sparkling and bombastic, a child of '68 and a libertarian, Sloterdijk is the most exciting and controversial German philosopher to appear on the world scene since Nietzsche and Heidegger.

Neither Sun Nor Death is a collection of interviews between Peter Sloterdijk and Hans-Jürgen Heinrichs. The structure of an interview happens to work incredibly well for a reader in terms of getting to the essentials of Sloterdijk's formal analysis and ways of thinking. Heinrichs provides us with the voice that questions, interprets and asks for clarification when necessary, and Sloterdijk exhibits a gracefulness that is admirable, almost otherworldly, he seems to have elevated himself to ...
