50 Quotes from Will Metzger's "Tell the Truth" - DR. MATT ...

You have told the truth, but not the truth in its entirety, and additionally it seems like you didn't really consider the gospel that you were trying to preach. And I could argue that if you don't tell the truth in whole, it's as bad if not worse than not telling them anything at all, because this leaves people with an incomplete and probably misleading idea about their condition.

A Book Review: Tell the Truth - The Whole Gospel to the ...

In other words our witness must present the whole gospel to the whole person by whole people. The truth of the gospel has become only a watered down version presented in man-centered theology. Yet, Metzger rejects this reduced gospel and argues that it is imperative to recover the full glory of the gospel to present a faithful witness to the world.
