Third Reich Jett And Jahn

The synchronized gymnastic demonstrations in the Third Reich would have resembled the demonstrations of Jahn's gymnasts on the Turnplatz in Berlin. The Turners' demonstrations were ceremonial spectacles that made use of bonfires and torch-lit processions, not unlike National Socialist rallies. [31]

History. The merger in 1934 to form SSV Jahn Regensburg strengthened the football side somewhat, but mostly produced only indifferent results, from 1927 in the Bezirksliga Bayern, coming second as its best result in 1930. In the Gauliga Bayern, one of sixteen top flight divisions formed in the re-organization of German football under the Third Reich in 1933, Jahn lasted for only two seasons ...
